PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the earliest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London [illegible]), regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER

THE TIMES:

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro, $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. B. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald.

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers.—Raleigh Standard.

The Literary Paper of the South

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT!"

THE TIMES,

THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST! ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!

THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choisest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the new of the day, both foreign and domestic.

The fifth volume commences with the new year 1860. Engagements have been made to make this the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.

Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still neater dress. The Publishers are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age: their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarges each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns, and make it the literary paper of the South. With these inducements the Publishers confidently expect several thousand increase in circulation.

But as additional incentives to the friends of the South to encourage their own literary and family paper, in which they will find none of that impure and immoral reading which sometimes they get from abroad, the Publishers of THE TIMES [illegible]

PUBLISHED BY

DENNIS HEARTT.

HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall contiue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum...............$400
Weekly...............200

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

Each subsequent insertion...............25 cents

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONY, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be entered at the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 28th February last, and laden on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Custom House officers. Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONY, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.

CHARLOTTE, March 1, 1862.

Presidents Message—The Country Calls for Soldiers.

The following Message from the President was communicated on the 28th inst., to Congress:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, March 28, 1862.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Confederate States:

The operation of the various laws now in force for raising armies has exhibited the necessity for reform. The frequent changes and amendments which have been made have rendered the system so complicated as to make it often quite difficult to determine what the law really is, and to what extent prior enactments are modified by more recent legislation.

There is also embarrassment from conflict between State and Confederate legislation. I am happy to assure you of the entire harmony of purpose and cordiality of feeling which have continued to exist between myself and the Executives of the several States, and it is to this cause that our success in keeping adequate forces in the field is to be attributed.

These reasons would suffice for inviting your earnest attention to the necessity of some simple and general system for exercising the power of raising armies, which is vested in the Congress by the Constitution. But there is another and more important consideration. The vast preparations made by the enemy for a combined assault at numerous points on our frontier and sea-coast, have produced the result that might have been expected. They have animated the people with a spirit of resi[illegible] that it requires [illegible] so regulated than to be stimulated. The right of the State to demand, and the duty of each citizen to render, military service, need only to be stated to be admitted. It is not, however, wise or judicious policy to place in active service that portion of the force of a people which experience has shown to be necessary as a reserve. Youths under the age of eighteen years, require further instruction—men of mature experience are needed for maintaining order and good government at home, and in supervising preparations for rendering efficient the armies in the field. These two classes constitute the proper reserve for home defence, ready to be called out in case of emergency, and to be kept in the field only when the emergency exists. But, in order to maintain the reserve intact, it is necessary, in a great war like that which we are now engaged, that all persons of intermediate age, not legally exempt for good cause, should pay their debt of military service to the country, so that the burdens should not fall exclusively on the most ardent and patriotic.

I, therefore, recommend the passage of a law declaring that all persons residing within the Confederate States, between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five years, and rightfully subject to military duty, shall be held to be in the military service of the Confederate States, and that some plain and simple method be adopted for their prompt enrollment and organization, repealing all of the legislation heretofore enacted which would conflict with the system proposed.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

The New Orleans Bee observes that if the motives of patriotism and love of liberty were insufficient to urge Southern men to resist the Federalists to the last extremity, we might confidently appeal to considerations which come directly home to every man in respect to personal safety, security of property, and the honor of family. They scarcely attempt to clothe in euphemistic phrases the universal spoliation of the South which would mark and seal her subjugation. It may cost much to resist them; but the expense of resistance is nothing compared to the utter ruin and impoverishment that their triumph would inflict. The Bee, after graphically depicting the consequences of such a triumph, adds:

"Such are the objects of the foe. To plunder and despoil; to seize and appropriate Southern wealth in order to pay their bloated war debt, and remunerate themselves for the trouble they take to conquer. We can expect no better fate if we are overcome, and we can only avoid a wholesale system of plunder and oppression that would at once degrade us to paupers and slaves, by resolving never to yield. Reject and scorn their simulated friendship. Meet them with the gleaming sword and levelled musket, and all the terrible enginery of war. Meet them foot to foot, and drive them from every inch of Southern soil back to their own domains. For this purpose let us resolve to fight until we conquer, and in executing our heroic purpose let us shrink from no sacrifice of either blood or treasure. The struggle is literally one for existence. We must repel the enemy, or submit to be vassals and serfs."

FROM THE PENINSULA.—Our latest advices from the Peninsula are a little exciting. They represent the enemy as advancing in large force on Yorktown. The inhabitants are leaving that region by every means of transportation at their command, in anticipation of the grand struggle that seems to be pending. A slight skirmish took place on Thursday, in which Lt. John W. Wray, of the Old Dominion Guard, was wounded in the hip. No other casualties are reported. A warm time is looked for, and the most stirring news from that quarter is hourly expected. —[Richmond Dispatch.

☞ Those who may at any time order a change in the direction of their paper will please name the office from which the change is to be made as well as the office to which the paper is to be sent in future.

We have several letters on hand ordering changes, but cannot spare the time to go through an examination of some four thousand names in order to learn the post office.

Good News from Florida.

We have barely time to do more than refer the reader to our Telegraphic News from Florida, which shows that the Confederates have won a great victory at New Smyrna.

Our Recommendation Sustained.

Long since we recommended that a system of conscription be adopted in providing men for the army, and urged upon our State authorities the propriety of adopting it, but until the authorities of South Carolina adopted that mode it seems not to have attracted proper attention.

It will be seen on reference to our columns that President Davis has sent a Message to Congress recommending that very plan. We are pleased to see it, and hope he will be sustained and his recommendation be carried into immediate effect.

Work on Hand.

The annexed notice from the Vigilance Committee of Charlotte indicates that they are going to work, and in the right way. We do hope that an example will soon be set, and summary punishment inflicted upon some of the class referred to. There are several in Charlotte, and a plenty of twisted hide and rope suitable to make swings:

PUBLIC NOTICE!

Whereas it has been reported to the Vigilance Committee for Charlotte Beat that a few persons in this town are depreciating the Confederate Notes and North Carolina Treasury Notes, by refusing to take them, and by buying up coin, gold bullion, and silver plates at enormous rates of premium, therefore, be it

Resolved, That this committee look upon any such course as an evidence of unsoundness on the part of the persons engaged in it, and that they call on all good citizens to report any case of the kind which may come to their knowledge that the committee may publish the names and take such course as they may deem necessary.

By order of the Vigilance Committee.

March 31 62-3t.

Charlotte Whig copy twice.

His Honor, Mayor Boatwright, of Columbia, S. C., has given notice that no person will hereafter be allowed to leave Columbia before obtaining a passport from the Mayor.

A special order, published in the Wilmington Journal, gives notice that no person will be permitted to pass beyond the suburbs of that city without a passport signed by the Provost Marshal. The order applies to persons traveling on foot, on horseback, or in public or private vehicles.

It is a great pity that that order was not enforced some time since, for we are credibly informed that quite a number of the patriotic citizens and merchants of Wilmington have deserted it to seek refuge elsewhere, apprehending an early attack by the Federals in that neighborhood.

We have been advised that several of that class,—hearty, able-bodied men,—who have been merchandizing in Wilmington, making money there during peace times, unwilling now to defend it, or too cowardly to face the enemy, have reached Charlotte.

We understand the Vigilance Committee of Charlotte have been urged by many citizens to arrest those of that class who have deserted Wilmington and sought refuge in Charlotte, and send them back. We approve of the suggestion.

From Nashville.

A letter from Nashville (says the Savannah News,) reports that Dr. Harris, the Episcopal Minister, has left the city. He was arrested last Sunday a week ago and told he must pray for the President of the United States, and no other, on peril of his life. He said he would suffer death first, so he is gone. All the churches are closed.

The Winchester Battle.

There was a rumor yesterday, says the Richmond Examiner, of the 29th, that Gen. Jackson had renewed his engagement with the enemy, and having been heavily reinforced, was contesting a battle in the neighborhood of Woodstock. We have been unable to discover any foundation for the report. There is positive information that, as late as 8 o'clock, everything was quiet on our lines. Reinforcements, however, were being moved to Gen. Jackson.

A private dispatch was received yesterday, stating that the following officers on our side had been taken prisoners by the Yankees: Lieutenant Judson, Capt. Morrison, and Lieut. Williams.

Later reports than those before referred to state our total loss in killed, wounded and missing to be about 465 men. That of the enemy is said to be considerably larger, that we can make no reliable estimate of its extent.

PATRIOTIC.—A number of patriotic gentlemen in Vicksburg has made an offer of one thousand dollars to each of the two companies of infantry from that city that would join General Beauregard's command before the 10th inst. A patriotic rivalry existed, which has undoubtedly resulted in a formidable reinforcement.

The Invaders at Washington.

By a private letter from Washington, Beaufort county, kindly shown to us, we learn (says the Wilmington Journal,) that on Friday morning, the 21st instant, news was received at Washington that five of the enemy's steamers were approaching. At the pilings in the river they were obstructed and met with some delay in dis[illegible] of the obstruction, but succeeded in [illegible] with their submarine battery. Between one and two o'clock two of the boats came up to the wharf and their com[illegible] on shore. Said he was glad to find so many to meet him, he hoped they were all good Union men, and woe to the Secessionists!

All the way as they came up to town a splendid band played "Dixie" and "Auld Lang Syne." On landing they formed a line headed by the drum major, a big stout man with a tremendous cap and a big feather in it, and a mallet in his hand.—They sent for the authorities and when Sheriff Campbell and Clerk of the Court, Corden, approached, they asked for the Court House to which they went and hoisted the Federal flag, playing Yankee Doodle, Hail Columbia, the Star Spangled Banner, and Dixie. The flag being up, they gave repeated cheers; our people preserved the utmost silence, manifesting much humiliation at the proceedings, but, under the circumstances, there was no help for it. They said particularly they didn't want the negroes, and if one came on board, they would hang him. They destroyed the gun-carriages in Mr. Myers' ship-yard, and took a parcel of tools belonging to one of the workmen. They cut up the gunboat on Farrow's ship-yard, and would have burned it, but they said they feared firing the town. They demanded the lantern that had been taken from Hatteras light, and threatened to hold Mr. Myers, in whose warehouse it had been stored by the collector, responsible.

They threatened to have Mr. Myers' and Mr. Willard's steamers, which are up the river,—said they intended to bring a light draft steamer for the purpose. There was a hundred soldiers only at the hoisting of the flag, and they were very handsomely equipped and splendidly armed. When they left they said they would send a boat occasionally to look around. They made no arrests nor said anything about the oath. They expressed themselves disappointed in not finding more Union feeling existing, particularly in the Mayor, who had been represented to them as a Union man.—They said they brought four thousand men, the steamers in which they were being anchored below.

Some of the Yankee officers said they were waiting for reinforcements of twenty thousand, when they would push right on to Raleigh. Everything was of course in a disturbed and unsettled condition when the letter was written, which was within a very few days after the coming of the enemy, some persons sending off their servants and some not. The negroes were very much disappointed with the reception by the Federal troops, who are heartily sick of them.

SOMETHING PLEASANT ABOUT TO "TURN UP."—The Richmond Despatch gives us the following Delphic hint. If it were a little less mysterious, it might be more gratifying:

We have some information, which prudence prompts us to withhold, which puts quite a cheering aspect upon our future, and when the time comes for its disclosure will doubtless gladden the public heart.

LETTER FROM SALISBURY.

Correspondence of the Daily Bulletin.]

MORE TROOPS—MARTIAL LAW—SOBER TOWN—PATROL—THE WEATHER, &c., &c.

SALISBURY, N. C., March 28, 1862.

Dear Bulletin:—Since my last to you there has not a train left here but what has carried precious freight upon it, destined for—well I will not say where. Suffice it to say the initiated will know.

Lieut. Myers mustered his recruits for the Rowan Artillery about town on last Monday evening in full uniform. They looked well and will give a good account of themselves, if hearty and stout men is any sign. He had eighty-three men. Capt. W. L. Saunders leaves to-night. He has a fine company, nearly all of whom have just left the plough and the fields. Capt. Blackwelder also leaves to-night. I believe the West is pouring out her men by thousands almost; it looks as if the war had just commenced.

On last Wednesday, at 4 o'clock, the grog shops were all ordered to be closed until Monday morning, and one passing through the streets at this time would think this world almost a paradise without whiskey. I understand several of the grocery keepers say they are willing to stop until the war is over if the town authorities will pay their license money back to them. What a good thing that would be, and as you cannot hear of one liquor seller that has as yet volunteered, perhaps some few of the many that abound throughout this land would have patriotism enough to go.

The Yankees keep trying to get out of the garrison, and some have succeeded. It would be well for persons to keep a sharp lookout for all suspicious characters and take up all who cannot give a good account of themselves; an honest man will not think hard of that if he can proove to the contrary. Several have made their escape from here, but have always been captured up the country. Some have went nearly to the Tennessee line. There is but one I think that has made good his escape. With the view of trying to remedy this, and also for the purpose of making property more safe in this town, the authorities had a meeting called on last Saturday night, and appointed a patrol of all the male citizens of the town, between the ages of sixteen and fifty, with a permit for men over fifty to volunteer or get substitutes. The patrol are all to be armed with double barrel shot guns or rifles, and are to halt every one after ten o'clock at night.

This will work admirably if it does not do as some other things that have been gotten up here, such as the Home Guards, live and flourish for a few days and then die out.

We have beautiful spring like weather at this time.

I have been requested by some young ladies to ask INCOGNITA, through the BULLETIN, how to glaze thread. In a communication of his sometime ago he gave a receipt for making sewing thread. He said then, rub, glaze and spool, and the young ladies in question do not understand him.

I hope to hear from WATCHMAN often, as news down his way is very interesting.

Perhaps my letter is already too long, so I will stop for the present.

Very respectfully, S.

FRANCE.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Herald, after stating the stagnation of business throughout France was deplorable, says:

The masses are frightened, and, as usual with the French when they become so, they also become cruel. Now they snarl and sneer at the entourage or the Emperor, speak of the millions swallowed up by those persons, and hint at a day of reckoning. I tell you the time is fast approaching when the government must strike some grand coup if it wishes to avoid the fate of its predecessors.

The great idea now seems to be an intervention in favor of the South. I can assure you that such is the Emperor's hobby, and has been all along. He has been kept back because England would not act before him, and that he does not desire a war single-handed with the North.

The commercial classes in France are in dismay. The diminution of business is really appalling. A few of the northern iron manufacturers are steadily employed, it is true; they are manufacturing arms and war implements—but the regular commerce is quite done. The result is a state of alarm and anxiety that is menacing.

NORFOLK, March 22.—The four prisoners taken at Powell's Point were brought to Norfolk yesterday, and among them—joyful to relate—the pilot who conducted the Federal vessels into the North Carolina waters.

The Yankee fleet does not venture to anchor in the roads since the advent of our Virginia, but nestles directly under Old Point. It is reported, however, that yesterday they vacated this shelter for some unknown point.

There are some movements going on among the troops here which it may not be expedient to give at present.

GEN. SHIELDS—PROPHECY FULFILLED.—General Shields commanded the Palmetto regiment in Mexico. After that campaign he paid a visit to Columbia, and was feted and feasted. In the course of a speech he made from the portico of one of our hotels, after applauding the daring and heroic deeds of the regiment, he said in substance that he hoped, if ever he drew his sword against South Carolinians, his arm might be severed from his body.

The prophecy or self-malediction has been literally fulfilled. Recreant, as he has proved himself to be to his most solemn asservations, the only regret here is the shell only fulfilled the malediction he invoked upon his body.—Southern Guardian.

Gen. Huger announces that all communication between Norfolk and Fortress Monroe ceased on the 18th inst.

Executive Department of North Carolina.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, Raleigh, March 22d, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 5.

I. ALL NEW COMPANIES OF N. C. Volunteers must be tendered directly to the State, otherwise the bounty authorized by the ordinance of the Convention to raise North Carolina's quota of troops will not be paid to them, as the law does not allow it. The Companies so tendered will be organized into Regiments by the State, the commissioned officers of which elect their field officers. The bounty will be paid each Company as soon as possible after their arrival in Camp.

II. No organization of Regiments or Battalions will be recognized unless the same is done by authority of the State and in compliance with its laws.

III. These Troops being raised for immediate field service should have no more baggage than each man can carry in his knapsack. It is desirable that each man bring a blanket (if he can furnish it,) any additional articles must necessarily be lost if brought.

IV. All communications on Military matters must be sent to this Office. In no other way will they receive immediate attention.

By order of Governor CLARK.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.
THE NEWBERN
Daily and Weekly Progress.

IT IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC that the unceremonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villainous proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

☞ Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card.
